

Seminar Series on Cultural Heritage Protection: Cultural Diplomacy in Libya

The opening seminar is devoted to Libya, a land of extraordinary archaeological richness and cultural traditions. The discussions will focus on collaborative initiatives, as well as on the contribution of archaeological missions and legal scholarship. Particular attention will be given to the opportunities that cultural diplomacy creates for fostering dialogue and mutual understanding.

14 November 2025
9 a.m. CET

Institutional greetings

- Alberto Oddenino - Professor of International Law, University of Turin; Deputy-Director of the Master in Cultural Property Protection in Crisis Response; Secretary General of Società italiana per l'Organizzazione internazionale (SIOI - sez. Piemonte e Valle d'Aosta)
- Gianluigi Mastandrea Bonaviri - First Secretary at the Permanent Mission of Italy to the United Nations Office and other international organizations in Geneva; Academic Director of Heritage International Institute

Panel:

Cultural diplomacy and academic perspectives

- Gianluca Alberini - Ambassador, Embassy of Italy in Tripoli
- Serenella Ensoli - Professor of Classical Archaeology, University of Campania "Luigi Vanvitelli"; Director of Italian Archaeological Missions in Cyrene (Libya), Palestine, and Cyprus; Scientific Advisor for Greek and Roman Archaeological Heritage of the Department of Antiquities in Libya

Please fill the form to join the event online, and write to tutorculturalpro@gmail.com for any information.

